PRAYER

Dear Jesus, I treasure you. Your birth was so much more than a story we remember at Christmastime. Rather, your arrival delivered hope, promise and salvation for generations, and I treasure these gifts in my heart. When I ponder your presence in my life, I am met with your warm embrace, your sacrificial love and your constant goodness. My heart and soul are transformed because of you. Thank you for living and dying for me. Jesus, I treasure you. Amen.

PRAYER

Dear Heavenly Father, This morning, we want to say “Glory to You!” We rejoice in you. We thank you for saving us! In our lowly state, you still chose us! Holy God, you have been so good to us. Please extend mercy to our family. May the next generation honor and respect you. We think of all your amazing deeds and how you have pushed away the wicked from our lives. Your strength holds us up. You alone bring down rulers and lift up humble leaders. Please save our nation. We pray that repentance, prayer, holiness and revival would come to every person. Start with us! You alone fill the hungry with good things. We hunger for your Word and thirst for your presence. The riches of this world are empty to me. Keep our eyes away from earthly things. Remember little Israel, and bring her peace and mercy this Christmas morning. We stand today on all the good promises that you gave to Abraham, Israel and to us. Thank you for health, blessing, expansion, freedom, victory and favor. You are faithful always. Merry Christmas, sweet Jesus. Live in our hearts forever. Amen.
